MESSAGE OF CHAIRMAN

INDIA publishes over 1,46,000 new titles by thousands of publishers in 24 Indian languages annually. This places India at the third rank in terms of the number of books published and second in terms of the number of English language publications in the world.

The book industry in India is worth over US$ 9.5 billion approximately and growing at around 15% every year. We export books, publications and make printing services accessible to more than 120 countries around the world.

India has had the distinction of being the Guest of Honour country at the Frankfurt Book Fair in 1986 and 2006, Paris Book Fair 2007, London Book Fair 2009, Moscow International Book Fair 2009, Turin International Book Fair 2010, Beijing International Book Fair 2010, Ghana International Book Fair 2011, Sharjah International Book Fair, 2011, Seoul International Book Fair 2013, Havana International Book Fair 2015 Abu Dhabi International Book Fair 2019, Feria Internacional del Libro de Guadalajara (FIL), 2019 in Mexico 2019 and Paris Book Festival 2022.

Indian publishers are publishing books in all fields from photographic albums to children books. Indian text books in STM, humanities and social sciences are used by students across the world.

Nearly 40,000 magazines and journals virtually act as conduit to regular and current information network for the educational and research institutions, professionals and discriminating readers the world over.

In view of the sophisticated printing and binding facilities, more and more world publishers are setting up their offices in India to get best products at a cost-effective rate and relying on Indian publishers, booksellers and printers for quality jobs. India can provide books and printing services to publishers and give them the best quality as per their need at competitive and affordable prices.

CAPEXIL welcomes participants from across the globe to the Sharjah International Book Fair 2022.

Kairali Books was established in 2004, with the tagline "A vadakkan Peruma in the publishing field". It was registered as a private Limited company with famous film actor Sreenivasan as chairman and O. Ashokkumar as managing director. So far, more than 1600 books in different genres have been published under the banner of Kairali Books. Thus, it could introduce various renowned writers in Malayalam and other Indian languages to the readers. To augment this, Kairali was able to form an efficient marketing chain.

A magazine named Akam was launched under the auspices of Kairali Books in 2010 which could attract wide readership all over Kerala. The editor of this magazine that has risen to a position of acclaim among the best cultural magazines is the famous writer C.V. Balakrishnan. Since 2013 Kairali Books has been a prominent presence in the Sharjah International Bookfair. Many books by renowned writers were published in various venues of the Sharjah Bookfair. In addition to this Kairali Books could participate in different cultural and literary events in UAE.

An international cultural festival is being conducted by Kairalibooks since 2019. Many writers and workers from cultural fields from various Indian states and foreign countries have already attended this cultural fest of North Malabar. The tourism sector of North Malabar too is given due importance in the KICF. Kairalibooks is planning various projects which are sure to awaken the literary, art and cultural zones of Kerala, esp.
